

2008 Recipients of CASF Awards

Every year, the Coalition for After-School Funding gives several awards to those who make outstanding contributions to after-school in New York State. We are proud to announce this year's winners:

Elected Official Award: Assemblymember Susan V. John

This award goes to an elected official who has consistently supported increased funding for after-school programs.

Student Award: Two this year: Nipa Islam, TASC City Scholars Academy and Brittany Ramirez, 21st Century After-School Program at Clary Middle School/Peaceful Schools

This award goes to an outstanding student who attends or works for an after-school program.

Provider Award: Kathleen Clark, Hudson Middle School Afterschool Program

This award goes to an after-school program or individual provider who has done outstanding work to serve children.

Law Enforcement Award: John Chella, Commissioner of Niagara Falls Police Department

This award goes to a law enforcement official that has actively been involved with after-school programs.
